MEDIA FACTS

Audio

Audio promotion is an ideal tactic for brands looking to reach a broad audience.

The average United States individual spends more time listening to digital audio than listening to the radio.

Written

Written promotional content could be referred to as "decision-making" content because it makes the reader an informed customer.

Video

75 Million people in the U.S. watch online videos everyday.

By 2019, internet video traffic will account for 80% of all consumer Internet traffic

Merely mentioning the word 'video' in an email subject line, the click-through rate increased by 13%.

-The 60/30/10 Rule -

60% of your posts should be sharing other's content, news, and articles.
30% should be your own content.
10% should be about you with a call to action.

Are people sharing your news?
